Aunt Mary's New Year's Gift-

It was New Year's Eve, and just such an Eve as it should be; clear and soft-not too cold for the dwellers in poor houses. But we have to do with a substantial country home, where the fire light's ruddy glow lit up every comfort in the snug sitting-room, and the circle of young faces surrounding its polished fender.

They were talking of the morrow, and of the gifts they had each prepared for father. mother, and Aunt Mary-speculating too upon the numerous boxes and parcels Joe had brought from the railway station, and which had mysteriously disappeared immediately after being unpacked.

They hoped Aunt Mary would be well enough to be with them, for they didn't half enjoy last New Year, when she was so ill she could not leave her room. Thus the eldest girl, Jane, told the children the story of poor Aunt Mary's early trials, which she had often heard in solemn times from Aunt Mary's

On the March.

A soldier lay on the frozen ground, With only a blanket tightened around His weary and wasted frame; Down at his feet the fitful light Of fading coals, in the freezing night, Fell as a mockery on the sight, ·A heartless, purple flame

All day long with his heavy load, Weary and sore, on the mountain road, And over the desolate plain; All day long through the crusted mud, Over the snow and through the flood; Marking his way with a track of blood, He followed the winding train.

Nothing to eat at the bivouac, But a frozen crust in his haversack, The half of a comrade's store-A crust that, after a longer fast, Some pampered spaniel might have passed,

Knowing that morsel to be the last That lay at his master's door No other sound on his slumber fell, Than the lonesome tread of the sentinel,

That equal, measured pace, And the wind that came from the cracking pine And the dying oak and the swinging vine, In many a weary, weary line, To the soldier's hollow face.

But the soldier slept, and the dreams were bright. And the rosy glow of his bridal night, With the angel on his breast; For he passed away from the wintry gloom, To the pleasant light of a cheerful room, Where a cat sat purring upon the loom, And his weary heart was blest.

His children come-two blue-eyed girls, With laughing lips and sunny curls, And cheeks of ruddy glow-The mother pale, but lovely now, As when upon her virgin brow He proudly sealed his early vow, In the summer, long ago.

But the reveille wind, in the morning gray, Startled the beautiful vision away, Like a frightened bird of the night; And it seemed to the soldier's misty brain But the shrill tattoo that sounded again, And he turned with a dull, uneasy pain,

> For the Patriot. The Volunteer's Return.

To the camp fire's dying light

Kiss me once again, dear Mother ! Hold my hand a while in thine; For it seemeth still a dreaming, And a dreaming half divine. .. Home again! Oh, blessed music, Home, with all the loved ones round-Free from war's wild strife and carnage, And the cannon's fearful sound.

Let me gaze again, my sister, On thy fair and youthful face; All unchanged save every feature Seems to bear an added grace. Through the long and lone night watches, By the camp fires fitful glare, Thou wert ever with me darling, Still thy image hovered there.

And the little ones, dear Mother, How the darling pets have grown; Little Fred and roguish Alfred I should really scarce have known. How sweet, Alfred's dark eyes glistened, As he met me at the gate; Whispering as he sprang to kiss me-Ned I really couldn't wait.

Oh, dear Mother, such a meeting, After all the toils of war; Yet my heart is fondly lingering, With the comrades brave afar. Ah, the bliss, the joy of feeling, That I tread my native soil; Oh, it well repays the hardships Of my three years' strife and toil.

Home again! Oh blissful music, Would that all might feel its spell, And our torn and bleeding country. Hear the watch-word " all is well." Yet our Father's hand is guiding, Who shall doubt his gracious power, Every mist and cloud shall vanish, At his own appointed hour.

Why should we his erring children Doubt his wisdom, truth or love; Nay, the source of all perfection Reigns in glory still above. So we'll bid the dark clouds vanish And enjoy the good we may, One sweet thought is mine dear mother, I am home again, to-day. M. A. A.

The Soldier's Wife-

The other day a wounded soldier on rutches entered one of our city railway cars, which was occupied instally by women. One of them rose and gave the wounded man her seat. Her neighbor, seeming to be scandalized by this abdication of feminine privilege, asked her if it were possible that she had coluntarily resigned her seat to that man. She replied that she had a husband who was a soldier in the Union army, and that she had Yesterday morning, with a friend, who is an to do for him in a similar situation. The oth-

> For the Patriot OBITUARY.

We love to speak well of those who die within the precincts of our acquaintance in righteousness. Horatio N. Glover, E-q., a well-known and respected citizen of Quincy. after a protracted illness, which he endured 25, Lizzie, daughter of William and Jane with meekness and resignation, has been with all men. He was diligent, exemplary and upright, in the business concerns of life. and he was blessed with worldly prosperity. He was a good neighbor in the practical sense of that term. Within the sacred range is developed in the routine of life's daily cares, the virtues of our lamented friend shone with undiminished brightness. The connubial period of his life, stretching beyond a space of thirty-eight years, with her who shared alike its joys and sorrows, will ever be held in sweet remembrance by the bereaved wife. Grief and a sense of loneliness who reigns supreme, be to her the widow's his final departure. He united the qualifications of an affectionate husband, kind parent, 12, Mary Ann, daughter of Daniel and are sure his loss cannot be easily repaired.

"The passing spirit gently fled, Sustained by grace divine; O may such grace on us be shed, And make our end like thine."

SAD ACCIDENT. The body of an unknown young man was found on the Old Colony & Newport Railroad track in North Bridgewater on Sunday morning, so much disfigured THOMAS G. EMERSON takes pleasure in and mutilated as to render identification almost impossible.

BY WILLIE P. GILCHREST,

They have laid her away in the silent tomb, My own fair gentle bride, Where the summer flowers shed sweet perfume And bloomed in happy pride; They bound her brown hair with the roses white

Which now above her wave, They laid her to sleep Where the sunbeams creep. With their soft and golden light, Around her grave, Lost Evangeline

'Near the old church that stands in the village street.

In the churchyard so lone, They made her a grave in that solitads sweat,

Where the sad night-winds moan,
They heaped the cold clods on her fair young them to a healthy condition. breast,

And sadly turned away, As the old church bell Tolled a mournful knell O'er her sweet and peaceful rest

At close of day, Lost Evangeline ! No more bath the world fond allurement for me

Since my darling is gone, Though others may smile in their joycus glee, Yet my heart is forlorn, For I, alas, in this world am alone, With no fond one to love. But sorrow will end

And joy radiance lend, For soon God will call me home To meet above, Lost Evangeline Brooklyn, N. Y.

From Harrey Sieller, Esq., the able editor of the Trunchtannoch Democrat, Pennsylvania.

Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly thread until they forsted a loathsome and virulent tore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skillul physician applied his rate of silver and other remedies, without any apparantefact. For affected days we guarded his hands, eet with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your Sausaparitha, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had finished the second. The Singer SEWING MACHINES.

OUR LETTER A Family Sewing Machine

Is fast gaining a world wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the BEST AND CHEAPEST And Most Beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for Hemming, Binding, Felling, Tucking, Gathering, Guaging, Braiding, Embroidering, Cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the inter locked stitch which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity can see at a glance, how to use the Letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exrympeles - General Debility - Purify the quisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and those "direlut diseases," embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

The Unknown World.

There is a world we have not seen, And time can ne'er that world destroy, Where mortal footstep hath not been, Nor ear hath caught its sound of joy.

There is a region loftier far Than sages know or poets sing-Brighter than summer beauties are, And softer than the tints of spring

There is a land with blessings, blest, Beyond what prophets e'er foretold; Nor might the tongue of angel guest A picture of that world unfold.

It is all holy and serene! The land of glory and repose ! Nor darkness dims the radiant scene, Nor sorrow's tear within it flows.

It is not fanned by summer's gale 'Tis not refreshed by vernal showers It never needs the moonbeams pale, Nor are there known the evening hours.

No-no! that world is ever bright With azure radiance all its own The streams of uncreated light Flow round from the eternal throne.

There forms that mortals may not see, Too glorious for the eye to trace, And clothed in peerless majesty, Move forward with unaltered grace.

In vain the philosophic eye, Or find it in the curtained sky-It is the dwelling-place of God.

We've all our Angel Side

Despair not of the better part That lies in human kind-A gleam of light still flickereth In e'en the darkest mind; The savage with his club of war, The sage so mild and good, Are link'd in firm, eternal bonds, Of common brotherhood. Despair not ! Oh ! despair not, then, For through this world so wide, No nature is so demon-like, But there's an angel side.

The huge rough stones from out the mine, Unsightly and unfair,

Have veins of purest metal hid Beneath the surface there; Few rocks so bare but to their heights Some tiny moss-plant clings,

And round the peaks, so desolate, The sea-bird sits and sings; Believe me, too, that rugged souls, Beneath their rudeness hide Much that is beautiful and good-

We've all our angel side. In all there is an inner depth-A far off, secret way,

Where, through dim windows of the soul, God sends His smiling ray; In every human heart there is A faithful sounding chord,

That may be struck, unknown to us, By some sweet loving word; The wayward heart in vain may try Its softer thoughts to hide, Some unexpected tone reveals

It has its angel side. Despised, and low, and trodden down, Dark with the shade of sin, Deciphering not those halo lights

Which God hath lit within; Groping about in utmost night, Poor prison'd souls there are, Who guess not what life's meaning is, Nor dream of heaven afar; Oh! that some gentle hand of love Their stumbling steps would guide, And show them that, amidst it all, Life has its angel side.

Brutal, and mean, and dark enough, God knows, some natures are, But He, compassionate, comes near-And shall we stand afar? Our cruse of oil will not grow less, If shared with hearty hand, And words of peace and looks of love Few natures can withstand; Love is the mighty conqueror-Love is the beauteous guide-Love with her beaming eye, can see

But Once I Strayed.

We've all our angel side.

One single fault forgive, I pray, The moments flew apace ; For ever where the heart is gny Joy blinds the dial's face.

Fair forms were in their splendor drest, And eyes were flashing bright; And Beauty, radiant and caressed, Beamed as the morning light.

Forgive-it was but once I strayed; An angel would the same, If in his golden walks betrayed By love's enticing flame.

Anerdotes.

As a party of gentlemen were taking supper at a country inn, one of the guests found the poultry tough. After exercising his ingenuity to no effect in trying to dissect an old fowl, he turned to the waiter and asked : Have you any such thing as a powder flask? No, sir, we have not; do you want one? Why, yes, I think the shortest way would be to blow the fellow up.

The most striking illustration of the saying, that the pith of a lady's letter is the postscript, which we have heard of, was that of a young lady, who, having gone out to Indiana, and writing home to her friends, concluded with the following words.

You will see by my signature that I am

AN ARTICLE FOR THE TIMES .- Richards Spark Arrester and Heater. This is not a new invention-it has been before the public some time; but the agent, Mr. Flint, in consequence of the fabulous prices demanded takes this opportunity of again calling public attention to it. His card appears in our paper to-day; which contains the pith of the argument of its merits-s saving of one-third of fuel-a fact, sustained by the strongest kind of testimony.

Copperheadism is getting to be aristocratic and is putting on airs. The Washington correspondent of the New York Atlas, a copperhead member of Congress, speaks of the passenger cars in which Congressmen ride being filled with "filthy soldiers."

Poetry.

If there were no Printers.

The Printers ! Ho ! I sing to them. I dedicate this lay,

To those who ply the noble Art, which, like the sun's bright ray, Gives light and happiness to all, and shines the wide world thro': Oh ! if there were no Printers, what would the people do ?

The Politician, then, indeed, would be a sorry thing; For there would be no daily sheet, election news to bring; And he would have to wait for it, perhaps a month or two;

Oh! if there were so Printers, what would the people do ! The Senator, and Member, too, might bid farewell to fame, Were not one found to print their thoughtstheir mighty deeds proclaim-

The speeches made for "Buncombe," they'd find to be " no go," Oh! if there were no Printers, what would our wise men do ? The Poet and the Novelist, might lay aside their quill-

Give up their toil and study, and bid their brains be still: For who would read their manuscripts, or even look them through? Oh! if there were no Printers, what would the anthors do ?

The Merchant every day, might get new styles Snuff and Tobacco Manufacturer, and fresh supplies; But were no papers to be found wherein to advertise, He'd find his stock grow very large-his dollars very few,

Oh! If there were no Printers, what would the tradesmen do ? The Ladies, too-God shield them well, and bless each gentle heart ! How they would grieve, if to the world was lost the Printer's art; For there would come no magazines each month with fashions new; Oh! if there were no Printers, what would the dear ones do ?

Then honor to the Printer !- to whom I give this lay;

To those who ply the noble Art, which, like the sun's bright ray, Gives light and happiness to all, and shines the wide world through; For, if there were no Printers, WHAT would the people do?

Squandered Lives.

The fisherman wades in the surges; The sailor sails over the sea; The soldier steps bravely to battle: The woodman lays axe to the tree.

They are each of the breed of the heroes, The manhood attempered in strife; Strong hands, that go lightly to labor, True hearts that take comfort in life.

In each is the seed to replenish The world with the vigor it needs-The centre of honest affections, The impulse to generous deeds.

The shark drinks the blood of the fisher; The sailor is drowned in the sea; The soldier lies cold by his cannon; The woodman is crushed by his tree.

Each prodigal life that is wasted In manly achievements noseen. But lengthens the day of the coward, And strengthens the crafty and mean.

The blood of the noblest is lavished That the selfish a profit may find; But God sees the lives that are squandered, And we to his wisdom are blind.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an en-feebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes in ompetent to sustain leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous ntamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above ail, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, t is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and eneration " indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fachers upon their children." The diseases which it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz. purification vigoration of the blood. Purify the blood. and these dangerous distempers leave you.

With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases. Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be rned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sec tions of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitu-tions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of the The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. If folks would persist in turning night into day, it is not to be wondered at that few last out the allotted term of life. No matter what like Othello's, " gone," and living in idleness the constitution cannot last, depend upon it, without a sufficiency of regular and refreshing sleep. John Hunter, the great surgeon, died suddenly of spasmodic affection of the heart, a disease greatly encouraged by want of sleep. In a volume just published by a medical man, there is one great lesson that hard students and literary men may learn, and that is, that Hunter probably killed himself by taking too little sleep. " Four hours' rest at night, and to recruit the exhausted powers of the body and mind." Certainly not; and the consequence was that Hunter died early. If men .. will insist on cheating sleep, her "twin-sister, Death," will avenge the insult.

Private Wm. O. Pope of Co. K, 18th Mass. Regiment, was accidentally drowned on Saturday last, by breaking through the ice, while crossing North East Creek, near Annapolis Junction (Md.) William was the only son of our respected townsman, Ozias M. Pope. At the breaking out of the rebellion he was among the first to enlist in the Hancock Light Guards, Capt. Curtis. He served faithfully through that three months' campaign. A few days after his return, he again enlisted with Capt. Meservey, in the 18th Regt. and faithfully performed his duties as a soldier. On the 3d of May last he was taken prisoner to parole camp, at Annapolis. For months warmest thanks. few miles from the starting point, he met with age. his untimely death. His body was found in held by Coroner Moore of North East, (Md.,) whom, 61 were of foreign parentage. and from a letter found in his pocket, which he had that day received from his mother, his body was identified. The citizens of North East took the matter in hand, and forwarded the body to his bereaved parents. It arrived here Tuesday night, and was buried from the Universalist Church on Thursday afternoon.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers. Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands. Grace's Celebrated Salvo cures Ringworms. And from Sores and Wounds of the most seriou nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify.

Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend. Farmer Smith shakes his old white head, Fuel, he says, will be scarce and dear; Half our young men are gone to the wars, Little wood has been cut this year.

Skipper Jones strokes his grizzly beard, Freights, he expects, were never so high, Half our hands are shipped on the fleets, Coale must be awful, by and by

Are ye glad, O Cedar and Fir! Will ye sing, with the Seer of yore, Rejoice ! no fellow, are in band, Cometh against us more !

Hush, with your wavy boast, Your flutter of leafy words ! The funeral train of your lords Goes down from mountain to coast. Their dirge is strident and hoarse-Screech of bob-sled and chain. Groan of drag and of wain, Reeling under the giant corse Of Oak from Merrimack's rugged source, And Pine from the hills of Main.

And down where the dock-vard sits. With mighty derrick and shears-Keel and carline, transom and bits, The mammeth skeleton grows and knits The spoil of your hundred years.

Are ye quiet, Kobold and Gnome ? Can ye crouch and whisper at will, By lode and drift, in your sullen home, Untroubled with pick and drill?

Hark, how angry and fast, By valley and mountain gorge, By port and foundry vast, The roar of furnace and blast. The clang of anvil and forge !

For the Powers of Earth to-day Are sounding an old, old Song-The loud and the dreadfu! Lay Of death to horror and wrong !

A thousand years has it rang " Crime shall go under!" Is all but a vast, vain pang? God makes no blunder-How the armories bellow and clang ! How the ship-yards thunder!

Ah, not for the fireside glow, With its cheery urn and tray, And the children's faces all a-row. Are the woods and the mines to day !

Scant is the spark ye spare for these, Dark-ledged caverns and moss-gray trees ! A grimmer service is yours at last-To roll the plate and to round the cast. Bolt the keelson and step the mast, And drive the war-ship through winter seas.

So hath it been from the days of old-Though the fire go out on the widow's heart And the orphans cuddle abed for cold-That is the way of our weary earth, These are the pangs of a Nation's Birth.

Trust and endure-for tis all of Fate-And the end shall come, be it soon or late-Better that one generation die. Than a hundred live in horror and hate-There's room for us all in God's fair sky

Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the SkinFrom Rev. Robt. Stratton. Bristol, England.
"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your Sarsararetta. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your Sarsararetta. She has been well for some mouths."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well known and muchesteemed lady of Denniaville, Cape May Co. N. J.
"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous cruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your Sarsarettal, which soon completely cured her."
From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known frm.

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome fumor in my face, which grew constantly worse unfill it distigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarbaparkll. I immediately made my face worse, as you told me if immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am a support of the disease that I know without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas - General Debility - Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sawin, Houston St., N. Y.
Dr. Ayer: I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attick of Malignant Erystpelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people. The Malignant Erystpelas of the people.

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars' worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bud that the cords became visible, and the doctors bad that the cords occame visine, and the Coctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as anybody. Being in a public place, my case is known to everybody in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your Sarsaffellia in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted." St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunckhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your Sarsafarahlla, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. From Dr. Hiram Stoat, of St. Louis, Missouri.
"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphiliz, and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess.
The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts. "Dr. Ayer — My dear Sir: I have found your ARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effect-ual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a power-ful alterative is required." Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswek, N. J., had dreadful uleers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSATARILLA relieved him. Ewe cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhæs, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require however, in aid of the Sarsarakilla, the skilful application of local remedies. application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr.
Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your Sarsaparatilla an excellent alterative in diseases of females Many cases of irregularity, Leucorrhea, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrothlous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not,
when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have heen cured of a very debilitating Lemostrhega of long standing, by two bottles of your Sarsafaellla."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia Heart Disease, Neuraigia, when caused by Scrafula in the system, are rapidly cured by this Ext Sarsafaellla.

Sketches of the Past, A PURCHASE.

Tradition has handed down a rather amus ing auction incident that transpired in Weymouth some fifty or sixty years ago. A veteran sea-captain of that ancient town having paid the debt of nature, a day was appointed by his administrator for the sale of his goods and chattels. A large number of the neighbors, male and female, attended on the occasion, and among others, a widow whose weeds concealed a rather preposeessing person. She had seen nearly forty summers, but time had leid his touch so lightly upon her, that she might have passed for a maid of thirty. Her husband, who had been from his youth a sailor, had fallen a victim to the perils of the sea; and since his death she had led a lonely life, the sole occupant of a neat rural cottage which he left her.

One article after another was sold, until he auctioneer to wind up the sale offered a lot of old canvas that had been stowed away under a shed. The widow, for what particular reason we are unable to say, began bidding upon it, but not without competition Two or three others stepped up and began to examine it. Pulling it open, they discovered a tarpaulin hat, and as they paused from surprise, a voice saluted them from the heap of canvas with-

All present stood amazed, but the auctioneer soon recovered from his astonishment. and being something of a wag, brought down his hammer, exclaiming with a comical smile: The widow -- has the lot for one dollar! The laugh that followed, and the widow's confusion, as she saw a sailor emerging from beneath the canvas, may readily be imagined. The gallant tar jumped upon his feet, and inquired who it was that had bought him. The widow --, replied the auctioneer, convulsed with laughter. Bless my good luck, continued Jack, I'm ust the fellow to be her slave.

The widow striving in vain to conceal her embarrassment, hurried out of the crowd, and made the best of her way home. The sailor stood gazing after her, and watched her three spoon-fuls of melted butter, halt cup of course, until he saw her enter her own humvinegar, one cup of molasses, and raisins to ble cottage. Then turning to the auctioneer

> For the Patriot Children - Their Instruction-

We like little children, and especially good little children. Our age has not yet advanced beyond the degree when their sports, conversation, and question-askings have become uninteresting to us; and we hope ever to maintain a deep interest in them. It is painful to see children " come up" without 10, William Henry, son of Henry G. and any appearance of especial regard of their parents, who may feed and clothe them, but never offer food for their minds, or attempt the work of instilling proper life-lessons into their teachable hearts. Such inattention of many parents is so great, that when they are prempted to give their children wholesome lessons, they are so infrequent, that the child takes the advice as a simple joke, and not as 20, Agnes Teresa, daughter of William sincere and earnest love of father or mother. Thou art Growing Old, my Mother-

Thou art growing old, my mother, And thy brow is marked with care, All furrowed is thine aged cheek. Once beautiful and fair.

Thy soft brown locks are eadly changed, Chill frosts have settled there, And touched with many a freezing kiss Thy gently flowing hair.

Thou art growing old, my mother. As I catch the half-drawn sigh, Well I know that years of sorrow Have bedimmed thy melting eye; But with gentle light it beameth, Beameth on me even yet, With a love that never changeth

Many of our household band Have before thee journeyed onward, To the far-off " better land." But the voice in tender accents

Still is falling on my ear, Sweetly brightening my pathway,

And around thy youngest born, Shadows gather-darkly gather-Even in life's early morn. But the blessed Savior spareth Thee, to still protect thy child. While the storms of sorrow hover, Hover o'er me dark and wild !

Soon I feel that thou wilt rest In the " land of the hereafter," In the regions of the blest. Who will love me then, my mother When the last life-cord is riven ? Let as pray that both together

The following beautiful lines are to be found near Morebend City, (N. C.,) on the head-board

" Speak not of gifts all shining, They cannot make the lonely heart rejoice; O how my weary, weary soul is pining To bear thy role:

For the long wished for joyous day to come, When from that far off land thy footsteps turning

Oft when the stars are gleaming With all their benety in the evening sky, When gentle eve her spell o'er earth is throwing,

I think thee nigh. And while at midnight dreaming

When sleep has chased day's saddening cares Then blissful thoughts of thee come o'er me

With hope's bright ray. Oh! bring no other token

But the one loving heart which once I knew, Then shall I feel the words thou oft has spoken Were all, all true !"

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until wetried your Sale-Saparilla, which soon completely eured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manuficturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsaparilla. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it whatever, and I took your Sarsaparkilla. It immediately made my face worse, as you fold me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your Sarsaparilla."

Dr. Ayer: I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your Sarsaparilla, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the Sarsaparilla you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celbrated physicians I could reneh, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so had that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your Sarsaparilla. Took two bottles, and some of your Fills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as anybody. Being in a public place, my case is known to everybody in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunckhannock Democrat, Fennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the lodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's explashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

I never could tell why, but I have all my life desired to visit Annapolis. Something that I read in geography or history at school. some little thing, had made a lodgement in my memory; and I have tried many times to deterred always by the assertion of one and another, that it was a dull old place, with nothing whatever to repay the time a visit would occupy.

The opportunity at last came, in my desire to see for myself the condition of our men who had been returned from the Richmond prisons, and of whom the most incredible bent upon her. They were earnest and soulful. I had known the facts before, and they are worthy a high place in the annals of female heroism and charity. I found she intended giving herself up to me for the present, and proposed the grand rounds. We looked in at the various kitchens for general and for sick diet, the common dining-hall, and the store-rooms; and every thing spoke well for the place. In the drawing-room of the Commodora's house, I got my first glimpse at Richmond prisoners ; fine looking fellows-each with a small table before him, and his dinner upon it. I expressed some surprise at finding them appearing so well. They replied, that they had been in hospital, and the men who had been sick had not fared so badly as the well men on Belle Isle. Moreover, they said, that, when any officer was placed over bring it within the compass of my wanderings, the rigor of their captivity was perceptibly relaxed. There was a child, a helpless child, Full of vain fears and fancies wild, That often wept, and sometimes smil'd Upon its mother's breast; Feebly its meanings stammered out, And tottered tremblingly about, And knew no wider world without Its little home of rest.

There was a boy, a light-heart boy, One whom no troubles could annoy, Save some lost sport or shattered toy Forgotten in an hour;

No dark remembrance troubled him, No fature fear his path could dim, But joy before his eyes would swim, And hopes rise like a tower,

There was a youth, an ardent youth, Fell of high promise, courage, truth, He felt no scathe, he knew no ruth, Save love's sweet wounds alone; He thought but of two soft blue eyes He sought no gain but beauty's prize, And sweeter held love's saddest sighs Than music's softest tone.

There was a man, a wary man, Whose bosom nurs'd full many a plan For making life's contracted span A path of gain and gold; And how to sow, and how to reap. And how to swell his shining heap, And how the wealth acquired to keep Becure within its fold.

There was an old, old, grey-haired one, On whom had four score winters done Their work appointed, and had spun His thread of life so fine,

That scarce its thin line could be seen, And with the slightest touch, I ween, 'Twould be as it had never been, And leave behind no sign.

And who were they, those five, whom fate Seemed as strange contrasts to create, That each might in his different state The other's pathway shun? I tell thee that that infant vain, That boy, that youth, that man of gain, That grey-beard, who did roads attain

We find the following beautiful little poem in one of our exchanges written on the death of a beloved daughter.

> Close the door lightly, Bridle the breath. Our little earth-angel Is talking with death. Gently he woos her-She wishes to stay: His arms are about her-He bears her away !

Down from the dome-Angels are chunting The sweet welcome home, Come stricken weeper ! Come to the bed;

Gaze on the sleeper-Our idot is dead ! Smooth out the ringlets, Close the blue eye;

No wonder such beauty Was claimed in the sky. Cross the hands gently O'er the white breast, So like a wild spirit Straved from the blest. Bear her out sofily, This idol of ours; Let her grave slumber

DENTISTRY.

HE undersigned have associated themselves together in the practice of Dental Surgery, at the old office of Dr. S. Stocking, No. 19 Tremont Row, Boston. We are prepared to do the best of work in every department of our profession, and on the most REASONABLE TERMS. We shall give especial attention to filling Decayed Teeth in the most thorough and approved manner. In addition to setting teeth on gold and silver, we shall bestow especial pains in mounting whole and half sets on Vulcanized Rubber base—a mode of adapting artificial teeth to the mouth, so universally popular, as to have almost entirely superseded the use of gold and other pre cious metals for that purpose. The Rubber base REDUCTION IN PRICES OF FINE-CUT CHEWING cious metals for that purpose. The Rubber base and Smoring Tobaccos, which will be being less expensive than gold and silver, brings the price down to the reach of persons of limited means. We flatter ourselves that an experience of twenty-five years will secure to our patrons peculiar advantages, as well in the quality of our work as in the terms we offer them. The use of two cents (02 cents) per pound above cost, bether will be continued in our practice, and administered in the most judicious and scientific have heretofore been paying enormous profits.

SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an en-feebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein E. F. HALL, Esq., that fluid becomes in competent to sustain Friedright vigorous action, and leaves the system to The clock just twelve was striking fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous ntamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, t is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation," indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases which it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the nach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These all having the same origin, equire the same remedy, viz. purification and vigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does com-bine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists or gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sec-tions of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitugreatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance Hence it tends to shorten, and does tions has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sars parilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffer-ing and danger of these-disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood; purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is in-tended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. Wm. Grace, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. Grace's Colebrated Salve cures Burns. Grace's Celebrated Salvo cures Scalds. Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds. Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns. Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons. Dying Soldier's Prayer.

Reavenly Father! I am dying. Soon life's dream will be o'er; Dying on the field of battle, Amid the battle's roar : Bat Thou, O God! wilt watch o'er me and guide my spirit back to Thee.

Ged ! I thank Thee for mis blessing. That I fell in the strife-Fell to save my country's honor,

To save a nation's life. But Thou only, alone can'at save Our country from Secession's grave

Gently guard my aged mother, And soothe her heartfelt woe; Grant to her the balm of healing, To dry the tears that flow O, watch o'er her for only Thos, Kind God ! " wilt care for mother now."

One there is, a genile maiden, Bitterly she will weep, When she hears the youthful suldier Is laid away to sleep. O God! is it thus we must part! Is this the end-dream of my heart

Forgive me no more I'll repine, Peace, my sad heart, be still ! Boldly I'll meet death's rolling river, And do my Master's will. To Thee I will my spirit yield-Like a soldier die on the field.

Heavenly Father ! I am dying, Soon life's dream will be o'er, For I hear Thy angels calling From the eternal shore. I am going, Lord, receive Thou me, O! take my spirit back to Thee.

Never Again.

Broken the silken chord, Severed the silken tie: Never again will the old days come, Darling, to you and I.

Dead the beautiful past! Scattered around its bier Pale thoughts lie thick, and memories Of days that were so dear. Memories ! Fold them up-

Lay them sacred by; What avails it to dream of the Past ! The Future ! for you and I ! Broken the silken chord, Severed the golden chair, Linking us with the beautiful days That never can come again !

Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunckhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

Our only child, about three years of ago, was abtacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Harfing tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAFARILA, and applying the iodirds of petnah lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the recoud. Little Lizzie's piesed away. To the realms of endless day Her freed spirit's taken its flight. Where no sickness, e'er can blight She now has joined that heavenly band, Who long since trod the spirit land; They came and beckoned her away, Because she was too pure to stay.

Upon these cold and ley shores, Where winds do blow and tempests roar, Her tiny bark would shattered be, Upon this rough and storm; sea.

Yes, she has gone to roam with them. And would not, if she could, again, Return and mingle with you here, And leave those bright celestial spheres.

Your engel Pather guides her feet, And eave to you - oh, do not weep He points her to the God of Love. And tells her all is joy and love.

But oh! when Spring again shall come, And birds shall carol forth their songs, 'Tis then, you'll miss her from your side At morning, noon, and eventide.

But she is weaving garlands fair, Of choicest flowers, to deck your hair; And on her turp she strikes anew, A song of love and joy for you.

At twilight hour when all is still, And stars their heavenly places fill, She'll come and whisper in your eur, Dear mother, now be of good cheer:

For Lizzie is not dead, but lives. And can return, and to you give Eweet peace of mind, which will endure Till you shall rest in heaven secure; Father and brother, sisters dear, All welcomed her to their bright sphere

Legal Whiskers.

As o'er the wine and walnuts sat, Talking of this and then of that, Two wights, we'll learned in the law-That is, well skilled to find a flaw-Said one companion to another, " flow is it, most respected brother, That you of late have shaved away Those whiskers, which for many a day, Had ornamented much your cheek? Sure, 'twas an idle, silly freak." To whom the other answer gave, With look half merry and half grave; "Though others be by whiskers graced, A lawyer can't be too bare faced."

The Old Rule for Drinking.

A man of sense three cups may take ; The first (if good)-his thirst to slake ; The second-to his favorite fair : The third- to bid goodnight to care. The wise will turn into bed-The fool will swallow white and red. He fills a fourth-well, let that pass, Wine makes your ass the more an ass. The fifth-will fill his mouth with prattle; The sixth-will bring him into battle; The seventh-will bring him knock-down blows Torn shirt, black eyes, and battered nose; The eighth-will show him in the street. A quadruped, on hands and feet; The ninth-will see him kicked and mobb'd, By watchman seized, by watchmen robb'd: The tenth-by Jove the bottle's empty ! There's not a single drop to tempt ye ! So, since the jovial night has past, He makes the mire his bed at last !

Anecdates.

An Irishman was doing some work for a lady, who was noted for her parsimonious and niggardly habits. The job was performed to her complete satisfaction. When she said, Pat I must treat you: Would you prefer a glass of porter or a tumbler of punch? That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputable proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of following diseases: King's Evil or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire. Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole ies of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individua cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN Almanac, which is furnished to the druggists or gratuitous distribution, wherein may be med the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sec-tions of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Mrs. Morgan's Maine Law.

Mrs. Morgan's husband was an excellent workman, and had the best wages, but he would drink, and like most men in his class when in liquor generally beat his children, and sometimes his wife.

Mrs. Morgan was a notable woman, and loved her husband in spite of all, but after No subscription nor advertisement will be years of patient forbearance, she came to the Advertisements correctly and conspicuously other words, she manufactured a private Maine Law of her own.

The occasion was one day when Jimmy came home to dinner, half-tipsy, which alern, on his way, and he did this on an average about twice a week.

Now you Morgan, said she, as soon as he entered, you've been at the whiskey bottle again-you needn't deny it. I know it by our looks-and by your breath too-go away you nasty beast, how dare you try to kiss me when you have been drinking.

Jemmy had essayed this matrimonial caress, hoping that it would conciliate the gude-wife; but finding his purpose foiled, he stood upon his dignity.

"Hoity, toity," said he, how you put on airs. Give us some dinner, and don't sulk. Mrs. Morgan did not often get roused, but she was so now. She put her arms akimbo and answered:

Not a mouthful of dinner do you get in this

Poetry.

There's Nothing Lost.

There's nothing lost. The tiniest flower That grows within the darkest vale, Though lost to view, has still the power, The rarest perfume to exhale; That perfume, borne on zephyr's wings, May visit some lone sick one's bed, And like the balm affection brings, 'Twill scatter gladness round her head.

There's nothing lost. The drop of dew That trembles in the rosebud's breast. Will seek its home of ether blue, And fall again as pure and blest; Perchance to revel in the spray, Or moisten the dry parching sod, Or mingle in the brooklet's lav, Or sparkle in the bow of God.

There's nothing lost. The seed that's cast By careless hand upon the ground, Will yet take root, and may at last A green and glorious tree be found; Beneath its shade, some pilgrim may Seek shelter from the heat of poon While in its boughs the breezes play, And song birds sing their sweetest tune.

There's nothing lost. The slightest tone Or whisper from a loved one's voice May melt a heart of hardest stone, And make a saddened soul rejoice; And then, again, the careless word Our thoughtless lips too often speak, May touch a heart already stirred, And cause that heart to break.

There's nothing lost. The faintest strain Of breathings from some dear one's lute, In memory's dream may come again, Though every mournful string be mute; The music of some happier hour-The harp that swells with love's own words, May thrill the soul with deepest power, When still the hand that swept its chords.

The Soldier's Letter.

The balmy Southern night is slowly falling, O'er vale and mountain brow, And wrapping in its solemn dasky mantle Our lone encampment now. Within his tent your soldier boy is seated, Writing these lines to thee; And this shall be the burden of my letter-Dear mother, pray for me.

I know in my old home the lamps are lighted, And friends are gathered there, But one is missing from that happy circle There is one vacant chair.

you, From care and sorrow free,

Think of your boy, far off 'mid strife and danger, And mother, pray for me.

Pray that our God your help in times of trouble To me his aid will lend ; While you bright flig the emblem of our nation. I'm striving to defend. And cafely from these fearful scenes of carnage Will guide me back to thee-sadly, O mother, pray for me.

But should it be my fate to fall in battle, And this bright youthful head, Which on thy breast so often hath been pillowed, Be laid among the dead; O, pray that to the land of rest and glory,

My unchained soul may flee, When one day we will meet no more to sever, This mother, pray for me.

SARSAPARILLA THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS DISEASES.

From Emery Edes, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your Sarsapar-ILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin-From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol. England.

Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the SkinFrom Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.
"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your Sarsaparatlla. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your Sarsaparatlla. She has been well for some mouths."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well known and muchesteemed lady of Dennisville, (ape May Co. N. J.

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enameled papers in Nashua, N. H.
"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsaparatlla. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me if might for a time: but in a few weeks the new skin immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without adult owe it to your SAESAPARILLA." Erysipelas - General Debility - Purify the Blood.

Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Savein, Houston St., N. Y.
Dr. Aver: I seldom fall to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your Sarsatarilla, and I have just now curred an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the Sarsatarilla you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the cel-"For tweive years I had the yellow Eryspelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollais' worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SansAPAINLLA. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as anybody. Being in a public place, my case is known to everybody in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W. a leading member of the Canadian Partiament.
"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted." St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes. Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harrey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunckhamnock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forchead. They rapidly spread until they formed a lonthsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands. nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.
"I find your Sarsarasilla a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Suphilis, and for syphilite disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lauvence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

Dn. AYER—My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswek, N. J.

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswek, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercuriad disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAFARILLA relieved him. Few eases can be found more invetorate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him. Leucorrhæs, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Screphlous Vicer-ation, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this Sansaparilla. Some cases require, effect of this Sarsaparilla. Some cases require, however, in aid of the Sarsaparilla, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cineinacti.

"I have found your Sarsaparilla and excellent alterative in diseases of lemales. Many cases of irregularity, Leucorrhosa, Internal Ulceration, and local delaity, arising from the scrotilland diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when itselfect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her same, writes:

Killing an Enemy

That man will be the death of me yet, said Paul Levering. He looked worried, but not angry.

Thee means Dick Hardy?

What has he been doing to thee now? The question was asked by a Friend named Isaac Martin-a neighbor.

He's always doing something, Friend Martin. Scarcely a day passes that I don't have complaint of him. Yesterday one of the boys came and told me that he saw him throw a stone at my new Durham cow, and strike her in the head.

That's very bad, friend Levering. Does thee know why he did this? Was thy Durham trespassing on his grounds?

"Is that Mother."

Is that mother, bending o'er me, As she sang my cradle hymn-Kneeling there in tears before me. Bay ?-my sight is growing dim.

Comes she from the old home lowly, Out among the Northern hills, To her pet boy dying slowly Of war's battle wounds and ills !

Mother ! oh, we bravely battled-Battled till the day was done; While the leaden hail-storm rattled-Man to man and gun to gun.

But we failed-and I am dying-Dying in my boyhood's years-There-no weeping-self-denying, Noble deaths demand no tears.

Fold your arms again around me; Press again my aching head : Bing the lullaby you sang me-Kiss me, mother, ere I'm dead.

THE peculiar taffit of infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an en-feebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes inthe vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to decay. The scrofulous ontamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, t is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generatior," indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniqui-ties of the fathers upon their children." The " When Night, on ebon wing, diseases which it originates take various names, ascording to the organs it attacks. These all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz. purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is compounded from the most effectual anti-dotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy vet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Erup tions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS DISEASES.

From Emery Edes, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your Sarsaran.

The street of the same Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Strutton, Bristol, England.
"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well known and muchesteemed lady of Dennisville, (ape May Co., N. J., "My daughter has suffered for a year past with a serofulous cruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SAR-BAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known from of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.
" I had for several years a very troublesome hamor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable infliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsaparilla. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your Sarsaparilla."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Erysipelas - General Debility - Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sawin, Houston St., N. Y.
DR. AYER: I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your

supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars' worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors of cided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your Sansaparilla. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound "as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to everybody in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon, Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your Sarsaparilla in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harrey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Timekhamock Democrat, Fennzylvania.

Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forchead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the iestering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your Sarsaparella, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole heighborhood predicted that the child must die." Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.
"I find your Sarsaparilla a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis, and for syphilite disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

DR. Aven — My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAFARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. Let only know what we emealed. other remedies. I do not know what we can em-ploy with more certainty of success, where a power-ful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswek, N. J., had dreadful vicers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this Sarsaparilla. Some cases require, however, in aid of the Sarsaparilla, the skilful application of local remedies.

application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr.

Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your Saksaparilla an excellent alterative in diseases of females Many cases of irregularity. Leucorrhoa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrothlous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when itseffect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, wavilling to allow the wiblingtime of the scroth and the property aided by local treatment. when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have heen cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhoea of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout. Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrafula in the system, are rapidly yurgi by this Ext. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

They carry shadows in their faces. When they come into your presence it seems as if the air was suddenly darkened by a passing cloud.

Mr. Hickman was one of these men who walk, for the most part, in dark valleys, or sit in dreary caverns. Rarely, if ever, on returning home, did he bring light into his dwelling. If there was merry laughter among the children on his entrance, their voices were hushed; if love's light beamed from the countenance of his wife, as she sported with her little ones, it faded away, giving place to a sober, thoughtful, half troubled look. He always came home bringing a shadow with had gone down into it.

Why was this? Was there a great trouble in the heart of Mr. Hickman? Had he passed through some depressing misfortune, or suffered some terrible affliction? March.

I hear the signal of the spring Through the long lingering winter hours,-The flutter of the robin's wing,-The far faint footsteps of the flowers

What though no blade of grass is green, And whitest robes the earth enfold; I know the snowdrop, all unseen, Is pushing upward through the mould ;

That in the hoary, silent trees, There wakes a pulse of freshning life, To quicken, till the summer breeze Shall toss their leaves in playful strife;

That to the orange groves the bird Sings even now his sweet farewell, And soon in northern forests heard Once more his tale of love shall tell ;

The ice bound streams ere long shall glide, Eager to meet the waiting sea, And mirrored in the sparkling tide The summer stars once more shall be.

Still falls the snow ; but nature's heart Throbs loudly, struggling to be free, Nor shall stern Winter's utmost art Avail to thwart her destiny.

A nation waits, O Earth! like thee, With bleeding heart and anxious gaze, Till war's wild winter cease to be, And peace shall bring her summer days.

Nor earth nor nation waits in vain; The months their welcome changes bring; And through the snows and wintry rain I hear the signals of the spring.

For the Patriot. To My Mother.

Mother, in my life's great changes, Fortune smiles-misfortunes frown I will often think about thee, And my own dear native town. When the past you are reviewing, Thinking of fields lost or won. Tell me mother, tell me candid, Do you then blush for your son.

With the 4th you know I've battled, With the 18th did contend And I ne'er forgot you mother, Ne'er forgot a former friend. I have been in many battles, Yet you've been in fancy's fight, When near Richmond I was mother, In the seven days hard fight.

Mother, I cannot forget you, But 'tis pleasure, oh, how sweet! E'en in fancy to behold you, And to think again we meet. To hope that we il read again In the cherished home I'm loving, And that hope-say is it vain?

Mother, God is still above me, May He still my feet direct May the soldier not the Counse Of a mother kind request. Quincy all thy scenes I cherish, Though no traitor foe I dread, Yet I hope again to meet thee, Mother, this is from your Old Adage.

Said Stiggins to his wife one day, We've nothing left to eat : If things go on in this queer way. We shan't make both ends meet. The dame replied, in words discreet,

We're not so badly fed, If we can make but one end meat, And make the OTHER bread.

Wholesaling Teas in this Country. HEY have introduced their selections of Teas, and are selling them at not over two best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffernever deviating from the one price asked.

Another peculiarity of the Company is that their TEA TASTER not only devotes his time to the selection of their TEAS as to quality, value, and particular styles for particular localities of country, but he helps the Tea buyer to choose out of their enormous stock such Teas as are hest adapted to his naticular wants and not are best adapted to his particular wants, and not aly this, but points out to him the best bargains. It is easy to see the incalcuable advantage a

Tea Buyer has in this establishment over all If he is no judge of Tea or the Market—if his time is valuable—he has all the benefits of a well organized system of doing business, of an immense capital, of the judgment of a professional for the cure of the afflicting diseases it in-

This enables all Tea buyers-no matter if they chase on as good terms here as the New York ever been available to them. Parties can order Teas and will be served by

We issue a Price List of the Company's Teas, Post Office; or at E. S. the constitutions of multitudes of men. It early attention. either produces or is produced by an en-feebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein AYERS competent to sustain he vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous tamination is variously caused by mercurial isease, low living, disordered digestion from nhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation," indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquiies of the fathers upon their children." The diseases which it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver com-plaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These all having the same origin require the same remedy, viz. purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual anti-dotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Fernale Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that aris from impurity of the blood. Minute report of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN Almanac, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be ned the directions for its use, and some of ne remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sec-tions of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitu-tions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does atly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these consideraremedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is coming and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood; purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar irtues this remedy stimulates the vital funcons, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abandant trial, and there name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done. Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co.,
